PROFILE

I am a dedicated first-year student pursuing a bachelor's degree in Electronics and Communications Engineering. Currently, I am immersing myself in the foundational principles of electronics and communications, eager to grasp every aspect of circuit analysis, signal processing, and telecommunications. I am committed to maintaining a strong academic record while actively participating in extracurricular activities that enhance my practical skills and broaden my understanding of the field.

My areas of interest include Circuit Analysis and Design , Analog and Digital Electronics ,Embedded Systems.

I am excited to be a intern at Aroha drone making club at Cusat and to be actively involved in it.

Beyond the classroom, I am an avid learner who seeks out opportunities to expand my knowledge and skills. I am constantly exploring new technologies, participating in workshops, and collaborating on projects that challenge me to think creatively and solve real-world problemsTogether, let's embark on this journey of innovation and discovery.....

WORK EXPERIENCE

- AROHA 2024 MARCH - PRESENT
Drone Making CLUB
 - Gained practical experience in building, programming, and operating drones, enhancing their technical skills and problem-solving abilities.
 - Explore innovative ideas and solutions in drone design and functionality, promoting creativity and pushing the boundaries of what drones can do.
 - Engage with the local community through outreach activities, such as organizing drone demonstrations, workshops for schools or community groups, or participating in SAE,ASME events and competitions.
